

“The People Priority”

Romans 12:14-18

A prerequisite for making disciples is valuing all people the way God does.

If we focus on people's differences, we will become indifferent people.

When you devalue yourself, you lose the capacity to value others.

Just because you are wounded doesn't mean you are worthless.

Making disciples means I go beyond what affects me to care about what affects them.